

And there shall be appointed in each district a meet person learned in the law to act as attorney for the United States in such district, who shall be sworn or affirmed to the faithful execution of his office, whose duty it shall be to prosecute in such district all delinquents for crimes and offences, cognizable under the authority of the United States, and all civil actions in which the United States shall be concerned...(Judiciary Act of 1789)

In and for the United States:
The Challenges of Representing the United States,
Then and Now

October 15, 2013
6:00 pm - 7:15 pm
Courtroom 420
Frank E. Moss Courthouse
350 South Main Street
Salt Lake City

A Panel Discussion led by US Magistrate Judge Paul M. Warner,
(US Attorney 1998-2006)

Panel Members

Ronald Rencher (US Attorney 1977-1981)
Dee Benson (US Attorney 1989-1991)
David Barlow (current US Attorney)

Special Video Presentation
Stephen Sorenson
Judson Callaway

Sponsored by the Tenth Circuit Historical Society. Please register at <http://ors.utd.uscourts.gov/cgi-bin/enroll.cgi?classid=215>. (CLE credit pending)

Reception to Follow - First Floor Lobby