Large empty rectangular box for describing the communication disability.

If the communications disability is not obvious, you may attach documentation from an appropriate health-care professional to substantiate the disability and the need for the auxiliary aids and services requested. The documentation should:

1. describe the nature, severity, and duration of the requester's communication disability; the activity or activities that the disability limits; and the extent to which the disability limits the requester's ability to perform the activity or activities; and
2. substantiate why the requested auxiliary aids and services are needed.

Physical Accommodations

Requests for accommodations to access the courthouse or courtrooms due to physical disabilities may be forwarded to the General Services Administration to properly process and provide the necessary accommodations.

Describe any physical accommodations requested and the disability that necessitates the accommodations:

Check the applicable options below and sign and date where indicated:

- I certify under penalty of perjury that I am deaf, hearing impaired, or have other communication disabilities that render me eligible for receipt of these auxiliary aids and services; and/or
- I certify under penalty of perjury that I require the physical accommodation(s) requested above.
