

PRO HAC VICE REGISTRATION AND ADMISSION IN RE: BROILER CHICKEN MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

On January 28, 2026, the court issued the following notice at ECF No. 24 in the Broiler Chicken Multidistrict Litigation regarding the admission of pro hac vice counsel:

NOTICE FROM THE COURT: Rule 2.1(c) of the Rules of Procedure of the United States Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (JPML) governs this action. Notwithstanding DUCivR 3-3, any attorney already representing a party in a member case does not need to file a pro hac vice admission motion. An attorney who is not already representing a party upon transfer in a member case must file a pro hac vice motion. Attorneys requesting admission pro hac vice (1) are not required to have their admissions moved by an active member of this court's bar, (2) do not need another member of this court's bar to sign pleadings or enter appearances, and (3) are limited to practice in this court in only the multidistrict litigation proceeding.

With the waiver of the local counsel requirement, pro hac vice attorneys must register online through the PACER system to request efiling privileges prior to filing the motion for admission. Attorneys who do not have efiling privileges cannot efile documents—including pro hac vice motions—and will not receive electronic notifications pertaining to the MDL master and member cases.

The instructions below outline the steps for registering as a PHV attorney and for filing the motion in the CM/ECF system.

Please contact the MDL docketing clerks at 801-524-6123 and 801-524-6115 for help with this or other MDL-related filings.
