
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

In the Matter of Cases Related to:

COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING
COMMISSION, et al.,

v.

RUST RARE COIN, INC., et al.

GENERAL ORDER

No. 19-001

In fulfillment of the court's obligation to promote judicial economy and the orderly working of the judiciary, the following case-management procedures are established to address the large number of cases related to Commodity Futures Trading Commission v. Rust Rare Coin, Inc., Case No. 2:18-cv-00892-TC-DBP that are anticipated to be filed. The objective of this order is to streamline procedures, avoid duplication of work, combine similar hearings, avoid inconsistent decisions, and promote judicial economy.

Accordingly, IT IS HEARBY ORDERED that Hafen v. Oberhansly, Case No. 2:19-cv-00627-PMW, be transferred to Judge Tena Campbell.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that all cases filed by Receiver Jonathan O. Hafen arising from or relating to the original case (Case No. 2:18-cv-00892-TC-DBP) shall be directly assigned to Judge Tena Campbell.
