To further the efficient administration of this matter, the court will conduct a case management conference in person on February 19, 2026, at 1:30 p.m. Before the conference, counsel shall meet and confer with one another, and shall submit to the court the following no fewer than fourteen (14) days before the conference:

1. A Joint Case Management Report addressing the matters included in Rule 16.1(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and any other matters the parties wish to address. To the extent the parties cannot jointly agree on a proposed Case Management Order, the parties may submit their own proposed Orders, together with a statement explaining both their positions of any agreement and of dispute, and the reasons for their disputes.
2. Counsel shall submit no fewer than seven (7) days before the conference a proposed agenda.

3. Counsel shall be prepared to address the content of the Rule 16.1(b) Report at the conference in addition to the following:
  - a. The general nature and potential dimensions of the litigation;
  - b. The likelihood and potential timing of any additional tag-along cases;
  - c. Any proposed special procedures to promote efficient management of the case; and
  - d. Organization of liaison and/or interim lead counsel on each side.
