
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

IN RE

REQUESTS FOR OUT-OF-DISTRICT
JUDICIAL ASSIGNMENTS

STANDING ORDER

No. 17-001

To avoid unnecessary delays in assigning cases in which it is apparent that all judges within the District of Utah will recuse themselves, the Chief Judge of the court may, without requiring all judges to recuse under DUCivR 83-2(b), request that the Chief Judge of the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals assign a judge from another district within the circuit to hear the matter.

It is SO ORDERED this 7th day of January, 2017.

BY THE COURT:

DAVID NUFFER, CHIEF JUDGE
