The court hereby orders that Enter Name of Evaluator, and his/her equipment, be allowed into the Enter Name of Facility, e.g., Utah State Prison in Enter Location of the Facility, e.g., Salt Lake City, Utah, or any other facility where the defendant is housed, following all established policies and procedures of the institution associated with entry, to conduct a psychological examination, to determine whether or not the defendant is presently suffering from a severe mental disease or defect, and whether the mental disease or defect renders him/her mentally incompetent to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him/her.

The court further orders that Enter Name of Evaluator be given access to medical, forensic, and psychological files at the Enter Name of Facility, e.g., Utah State Prison, or another facility where the defendant is housed, consistent with the any Protective Order, if entered.

The court further orders that any representative of the Enter Name of Facility, e.g., Utah State Prison, or any facility where the defendant is housed, is not allowed to contact or reveal any information regarding this matter to any government prosecutor, agent, or anyone connected with the United States Attorney's Office. Any questions regarding this ex parte order should be directed to this court or defense counsel.

The court further orders that this ex parte order be filed under seal to preserve the defendant's right to fair trial.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
