
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

IN RE: IMPLEMENTATION OF NEXTGEN CM/ECF

GENERAL ORDER
No. 20-002

CM/ECF filing for the District of Utah will suspend operation at 12:00 noon on Friday, January 31, 2020, as the conversion to NextGen CM/ECF begins. After noon on Friday, January 31, 2020, Notices of Electronic Filing will not issue until NextGen becomes operational on Monday, February 3, 2020. An automatic extension of time for electronic filing is hereby granted for all documents with court-imposed deadlines falling between noon on Friday, January 31, 2020, and midnight on Sunday, February 2, 2020. All documents due during that period must be filed on or before Monday, February 3, 2020.

During CM/ECF suspension, the Clerk will accept documents filed in paper in the Office of the Clerk of Court or filed electronically via email, if sent to utdecf_clerk@utd.uscourts.gov. Such submissions should be limited to filings with a statute of limitations deadline, requests for emergency injunctive relief, notices of appeal, and similar time-sensitive filings. If counsel or pro se filers have any concern about whether a filing must be submitted to the Clerk to ensure its timeliness, they should submit the filing in person in the Office of the Clerk of Court or by email at the address listed above. Documents submitted in person or by email will be deemed filed as of the date received and will be entered on the docket by the Clerk's Office as soon as practical.

Information will be posted on the Court's website on or before Monday, February 3, 2020, as to when NextGen is operational. For counsel and filing parties, previously issued CM/ECF logins and passwords will no longer be operational after 12:00 noon on January 31, 2020, and all electronic filing will be accomplished using PACER logins and passwords.¹ Information on the CM/ECF transition process has been emailed to all attorneys registered in this court and is available on the court's website. Interested parties are encouraged to monitor the website.

It is SO ORDERED this 13th day of Jan., 2020.
